Crusaders Return for the Alumni Children Easter Egg Hunt

The Easter Bunny came to Holy Cross a little early this year at the Annual Alumni Children Easter Egg Hunt. Crusaders spanning the decades returned with their families for a morning of eating, face painting, Easter egg hunting, games, dancing (with music provided by Keith Alan Productions) and some face time with the Easter Bunny.

"This is always one of our best events," said Mike Phelan '89, Director of Alumni Relations and Special Events. "This year, over 80 alumni and their families attended. It was so great to see everyone." (Read More)

Father Michael Casey '05: Preaching to Our Deepest Needs

Father Michael Casey '05 has developed a reputation in the Greater Waterbury area for his approachability, accessibility and natural ability to spread God's word to his modern-world congregation. He has been a pillar at the Basilica of the Immaculate Conception since July 1, 2015. Recently, he has transferred to the Cathedral of Saint Joseph in Hartford where he will serve as Parochial Vicar.

"It is a very active parish," said Father Casey. "We hold two daily masses. It is a very good community. There are lots of great opportunities for outreach and evangelization." (Read More)

Music Department Journeys through Europe in the Annual Spring Concert

The Holy Cross Music Department took the school community on a musical journey through Europe at the annual Spring Concert. Led by directors Gabrielle Brazauskas and Leo Lavallee, vocalists and instrumentalists performed a repertoire ranging from Mozart's Lacrymosa to Johan Strauss's Waltz Time Austrian Waltzes to the traditional sea chantey, What Do You Do With a Drunken Sailor?

Congratulations to the Concert Choir, Jazz Workshop, Crosstones, Girls' Jazz & Pop Choir, Chamber Choir and Concert Band for a wonderful evening.
