

Crusaders Honor One of Their Own at Chris Corbett '93 5K

The Greater Waterbury community gathered together on Sunday, April 2, 2017 to honor Deputy Chief Christopher D. Corbett '93 of the Waterbury Police Department (WPD) at the 2nd Annual Chris Corbett 5K. The run was hosted at Holy Cross High School, Chris's alma mater. Several local private schools, friends and community members turned out to remember a truly wonderful man. (Read More)

Celebrating Crusaders: Rafael Ozdemirer '97: Getting People Back to Their Sport

Rafael Ozdemirer '97 spent some time figuring out which profession he wanted to pursue. Originally, he wanted to be a police officer, but decided that wasn't for him. Shortly thereafter, he obtained his prelaw degree at the University of Maine. He had every intention of pursuing Environmental Law. He worked in a law firm for 2 1/2 years to see if this was something he really wanted to do. He realized that it wasn't. (Read More)

A Video Message from Holy Cross

Are you ready to Give Local? Click here to see why you should join the celebration on April 25th, starting at 7:00am.

Hosted by the Connecticut Community Foundation, Give Local Greater Waterbury and Litchfield Hills is an initiative held to benefit the vital work of hundreds of nonprofit organizations in the region. Monies raised will support Holy Cross's areas of greatest need which includes our service-oriented initiatives.

A fun 36-hour online giving event, Give Local unites donors, businesses and organizations in giving back to the communities where we live, work and play. We hope you will remember Holy Cross High School as you map out your philanthropic priorities on this inspiring day.

Psychology Students Create Children's Books

Students in William Peter's Psychology Honors and CP-A classes recently completed a project that brought out their creative side. While studying Developmental Psychology, they were each asked to write and illustrate a children's book that fit some imperative criteria. (Read More)
