News & updates for everyone in our Holy Cross family

Learning and Evolving in a Virtual Age

The face of education evolved into something no one could have expected a few months ago. The traditional brick and mortar setting coupled with physical interaction has been replaced by a virtual connection on a digital platform. Holy Cross High School closed its campus doors in mid-March, but the school has since stayed open. Lessons are taught, bonds are deepening and school leadership is hard at work to stay one step ahead of the COVID-19 curve. (Read More)
