The Crusaders Return to Campus

After six weeks of remote learning, Holy Cross High School welcomed the students back to campus. Students returned to the same safety protocols and expectations that were implemented at the start of the 2020-2021 school year. View photos.

Mission-Based Work with DNC CFO, Joseph Smolskis '81

The nonprofit world and mission-based activities loom large in the heart of Joseph Smolskis '81. Throughout his four decade accounting career, he always asks himself if he can "get into the mission" and "can I make a difference there?" He is currently making an indelible impact as the chief financial officer of the Democratic National Committee (DNC). \(Read More\)

Gianna Petrokaitis '23 Interviews Gina Petrokaitis '85

Crusader Intern, Gianna Petrokaitis interviewed her mother, Gina Petrokaitis '85, an attorney in Waterbury, CT. "Holy Cross teachers prepared me well for college and law school," said Gina. "I learned to be an effective writer. While I did not always appreciate the dress code requirements as a student, I learned how to present myself in the professional world. Also, I was taught to think critically, while viewing life through a Catholic lens." \(Read More\)
