News & updates for everyone in our Holy Cross family

A Crusader's Journey

It is a story that is told time and time again. A protagonist leaves their normal world, overcomes adversity with the help of others and returns home a new and improved self. This year, more than ever, we have witnessed the herculean efforts and stamina of our educators and students as they navigated through a global pandemic. We proudly present the stories from our faculty and students and their journeys over this past year.

New Technology Arrives at HC

We are excited to share our Ultimaker 3D printer, which is just one of the many exciting features of our Crusader Creator Space. This year faculty and students will be able to design and create incredible works from their imaginations. Thanks to Ion Bank & Eversource CT for providing funds to purchase the Ultimaker 3D printer.

Class of 2021 Gathers Together One Last Time

Members of the Class of 2021 returned to campus to receive their yearbooks and reconnect before they went on their separate ways to college. View photos!

Board of Directors Annual Retreat

The Board of Directors met for its annual retreat on Sunday, August 15th. In addition to welcoming the newest members, the Board went over key goals and dates for the 2021-2022 academic campaign. Board member roles and responsibilities were reviewed. (Read More).
