The "Eternal Seniors" Return for their 50th Reunion

The Class of 1972 returned to Holy Cross High School to celebrate their 50th Reunion. Self-labeled as "the eternal seniors", this energetic group rekindled relationships that began in the late 60s. Over the weekend, the alumni participated in a golf outing, attended a welcome back cookout, dedicated the new Hope Rock that sits in the front of the building, reminisced at the 50th Reunion dinner and received their golden diplomas on Graduation Day.
